EASC

EMPLOYERS ASSOCIATION OF SOUTH CAROLINA

2017 TRAINING SCHEDULE

Employers Association of South Carolina was established in 1973, and thus began a commitment to quality management services to South Carolina employers. Since then, EASC has generated numerous resources designed to inform, advocate, and foster overall effective relationships between employers and their employees. In addition, EASC has developed a business philosophy that defines it as a management service organization of experience and professionalism.

VISION:

To provide innovative and professional management services to business and industry in South Carolina.

MISSION:

EASC fulfills its vision by providing:

- Membership services
- Training
- Consulting
- Affiliated Programs

All delivered by experienced and results-oriented professionals.

VALUES:

- Integrity
- Honesty
- Professionalism
- Quality
- Courtesy
- Objectiveness
- Cost-effectiveness
- Results

As the only management service organization in South Carolina concentrating in the distinctive area of employer/employee relations regulated by state and federal law, EASC is a valuable resource to companies of all types and sizes. Our membership reflects a broad and diverse group of employers, either based in South Carolina or having facilities in the state. All major industry types are represented in our membership including, but not limited to, manufacturing, utilities, banking, insurance, construction, health care, distribution/warehousing, and transportation.

HOW TO REGISTER FOR TRAINING

It is easy to register. Registrations are welcome by phone, mail, fax or e-mail. If you wish to mail or fax your registration, simply complete and return the registration form found in this catalog. Please keep a copy of all registrations for your files. Make reservations as early as possible to ensure your reserved place in training programs. A confirmation will be e-mailed to you when your registration is received by EASC. If you pay by credit card the receipt will be faxed or mailed to you. An e-mail reminder will be sent to participants prior to the training date.

Nothing kills a good seminar quicker than waiting until the last minute to register. If you are interested in any of EASC's training seminars, please register early. If we don't have enough registrations, we may have to cancel the class.

CANCELLATION

Substitutions may be made at any time and are encouraged when the original registrant cannot attend. If a class is cancelled by EASC, we will refund your registration fee or we will provide your company a credit for another class.

TRAINING LOCATION

Training classes are held at EASC (unless otherwise noted) located at 104 Corporate Boulevard, Suite 408, off Exit 110 on I-26. You will find a map of the Columbia area in this catalog. If you need additional directions to EASC, please give us a call. We are also ready to assist you if you need to make arrangements to stay in the Columbia area overnight.

CONTINUING EDUCATION UNITS

Participants completing programs are awarded Continuing Education Units (CEU's) which are collected in EASC's computer database. When you need a listing of your CEU's, call the Association office. A certificate of training will be issued for all successful participants and the number of CEU's credited to that class are shown.

Comments from our class participants

“The instructor was an excellent facilitator. I really enjoyed the training and would recommend the course to others. He is very knowledgeable in subject matter.”

“The experience the instructors have. They know how to relate to the audience. I felt that they have been “there done that”!”

“The instructor made things easier to understand as far as what to do and what not to do He was very personable and good at what he does. He kept things interesting and was a pleasure to have. Thank you.”

“Instructor connected with group and gave real life situations.”

“Very detailed with cases and numbers to back up the presentation. The presenter was knowledgeable as well as personable which made the class more interesting.”

“He did not dwell on any one topic to make sure all was addressed but nothing dragged on.”

“Some instructors in other classes I have attended use Power Point as a crutch. Our instructor filled in around the bullet points with detailed information. Great job!”

“ I enjoyed this class. The instructor made the material easy to understand. I am looking forward to using what I learned in my job.”

CLASS DESCRIPTIONS

AFFIRMATIVE ACTION PLAN PREPARATION

Target Audience: EEO Officers and HR Professionals

The requirement for preparing an affirmative action plan can be a daunting task, especially for those who have never done one before. This comprehensive workshop is a practical how-to for the entire AAP process. The two-day workshop includes: AAP requirements and governing authority; data gathering and analysis; AAP narrative development; AAP for females and minorities; AAP for Vietnam era veterans and disabled veterans; AAP for the handicapped; under-utilization review and goal setting; AAP updates; audits; and annual maintenance; and applicant flow documentation and maintenance. Attendees will go away with a template to prepare their own AAP.

Date: 2/14-15/17 or 11/1-2 /17 • Price: $470.00 ~ EASC Member Price: $390.00

BEHAVIORAL INTERVIEWING

Target Audience: HR Professionals and others involved in the interviewing process who want a more definitive method of selecting the right employee for the right job.

This course provides you with the skills to match the behavioral tendencies that a job requires for success to the behavioral tendencies the applicant possesses naturally, and how to measure these against the applicant's performance in past jobs. The focus of this session will be on defining specific competencies and behaviors and developing and identifying behavioral questions and answers.

Date: 1/26/17 • Price: $235.00 ~ EASC Member Price: $195.00

BETTER BUSINESS WRITING

Target Audience: Anyone who wants to improve business writing skills

First impressions are quite often lasting impressions. How you speak and how you write say a lot about you and your company. Can you – or your business – afford poor grammar, spelling, punctuation, and sentence structure?

This class includes practical tips on how to draft correspondence to fit various situations that will be effective and easily understood. You will learn how to avoid spelling and punctuation errors that can embarrass you and your company. The class includes interactive participation and opportunities to test what you learn.

- * Improve your spelling, punctuation, usage, and style
- * Avoid the pitfalls of business writing
- * Learn the ten techniques for effective communication
- * Create persuasive and more effective memos and letters

Dates: 1/18/17 or 10/17/17 • Price: $235.00 ~ EASC Member Price: $195.00

BUSINESS ETHICS

Target Audience: Senior Management, Managers, HR Professionals, Finance Department Employees, Supervisors, and Other Key Office Personnel

Many employees question if ethical business practices are even possible in a time when government regulations and company policies are very clear that bad behavior in a business environment is prohibited. Scandals and fraud occur every day. Many are never detected until it's too late, and the company has suffered loss of reputation, brand significance, and credibility. This class offers interactive opportunities with experienced professionals who have lived in these types of environments. True stories are great teachers. Learn what bad behavior is, how to identify it, and what to do to correct it before it costs many jobs, financial loss, and stake holders. The focus is on what ethics code can and will do for your organization.

Date: 5/17/17 or 11/8/17 • Price: $235.00 ~ EASC Member Price: $195.00

“CAREER OFF-TRACK” COACHING

Target Audience: Applicable to any employee, but especially that supervisor or manager who was a rising star at one time but has gotten off-track.

One-on-one, this program is intended to help the individual understand her/his natural tendencies to act and how those tendencies affect job performance. Quite often, the employee is simply misplaced. But, sometimes the problem is more of how a person reacts to the world around him/her. We create an understanding of what motivates the employee, her interpersonal skills, her leadership process, and her reaction to stressful situations. With this understanding, there is a good chance of getting that career-track back to where the company expects it to be.

Location: EASC Columbia Office • Price: Based on number of hours involved with each individual.

CHANGE MANAGEMENT AND THE HIGHLY EFFECTIVE ORGANIZATION

Target Audience: Managers and Supervisors

Companies today are looking for that competitive edge which allow them to succeed in the increasingly global economy. An edge that will allow the organization to operate in a highly efficient manner regardless of the obstacles placed in its way. This edge is frequently the ability to handle constant and accelerating change. This program provides the skills and understanding to incorporate change management into the culture of the organization and takes a look at the tools necessary to quickly and effectively react when change hits. The program overlays change management skills on other “people” systems necessary for the organizational performance necessary for success now. Put another way, this program strives to view the organization as constantly moving and provides the tools for the individual to thrive in the environment and to make a strong contribution.

Dates: 3/1/17 or 8/3/17 • Price: $235.00 ~ EASC Member Price: $195.00

DEALING WITH EMPLOYEE PERFORMANCE ISSUES

Target Audience: HR professionals, managers, and supervisors.

Traditionally, the supervisor has taken full responsibility for trying to make employees change problem behaviors through the use of fear or threats of punishments. Often the results have been “hard feelings” toward the supervisor and a desire to get even. In this workshop the supervisor will work from a facilitative position that allows and helps the employee accept responsibility for the problem behavior and its resolution. The process is “adult-to-adult” and the results build both self-discipline and self-esteem. Moreover, the relationship between the supervisor and employee is strengthened. The workshop will include:

- The Impact of Expectations and Attitude
- Guidelines for Discussion of Problem Behavior
- Use of Assertive Communication Skills
- Follow-up Techniques

Dates: 2/28/17 or 9/5/17 • Price: $235.00 ~ EASC Member Price: $195.00

DELEGATING FOR RESULTS

Target Audience: Managers and Supervisors

The best managed organizations consider the art of delegation one of the keys for effective management; however, most of us are reluctant to “let go”. We know we should, many times think we do, but find that we get mixed results from our attempts to delegate work appropriately to individuals and groups. This workshop will focus on how to overcome some of the “psychological” barriers to delegation as well as step-by-step guidelines for effective delegation. Content areas will include: Psychological Barriers to Delegation; Developing Performance Agreements with Employees; Delegating Specific Jobs to Individuals and Teams; and Sharing the Vision, the Responsibility, and the Glory.

Dates: 4/27/17 or 10/18/17 • Price: $235.00 ~ EASC Member Price: $195.00

DELIVERING EFFECTIVE PRESENTATIONS

Target Audience: Supervisors, Managers, HR Professionals, and others who may be expected to deliver presentations.

To many people, making a presentation for any audience is an intimidating proposition. It can be a terrifying experience. Delivering presentations can be a dynamic means of communicating, but also can be motivating and compelling in the development of confidence and credibility. Participants will learn how to prepare a presentation and execute a delivery in a professional and effective manner. Essential skills and practice techniques will be addressed, and a short presentation will be delivered by each participant and evaluated by the other participants and the instructor.

Date: 3/7/17 or 9/12/17 • Price: $235.00 ~ EASC Member Price: $195.00

DEVELOPING AN EFFECTIVE SAFETY PROCESS

Target Audience: Safety Managers, Safety Team Members, HR Professionals and others with safety responsibilities.

Attendees will learn the basics of an effective safety process including:

- Minimum requirements for Effective Safety Management
- Developing and Maintaining a Safety Culture
- Safety Training / Orientation
- Techniques of Hazard Identification and Hazard Control
- OSHA Priorities and Training Requirements
- Accident Investigation Process and Claims Management
- Responsibilities of Management, Supervisors and Safety Team Members

Dates: 4/12/17 or 10/3/17 • Price: $235.00 ~ EASC Member Price: $195.00

DISCIPLINE AND COACHING FOR SUCCESS

Target Audience: Managers and Supervisors.

Establishing mutual trust within the work team begins with the supervisor. How well you are able to do this will determine the overall “climate” of your department or unit within the organization. The purpose of this workshop is to provide supervisors with the attitudes and skills necessary to facilitate an “adult-to-adult” process of employee development that teaches acceptance of responsibility for problem behaviors and their resolution. The result will be a performance management process that allows you to get to know and work effectively with each employee.

Dates: 3/29/17 or 10/10/17 • Price: $235.00 ~ EASC Member Price: $195.00

DISPUTE FACILITATION AND CONFLICT RESOLUTION

Target Audience: HR Professionals, managers, and supervisors.

In the age of litigation where plaintiffs’ attorneys are willing to turn any workplace dispute into a lawsuit, companies are increasingly turning to internal dispute resolution to solve problems before they become fully grown disputes. This class will provide basic methods of dispute resolution and offer insight into ways that your organization can implement its own dispute resolution system.

Dates: 5/16/17 or 10/4/17 • Price: $235.00 ~ EASC Member Price: $195.00

DO’S AND DON’TS: NLRA FOR MANAGERS AND SUPERVISORS

Target Audience: Managers and Supervisors. One of a series of classes designed for the entry level HR professionals, managers, and frontline supervisors.

The best way to avoid a union election is by being prepared. Many times having an organizational drive, a campaign, an election, or receiving an unfair labor charge is determined not by the situation managers are handed - but by the way managers handle the situations they encounter on a daily basis. This course covers the National Labor Relations Act (NLRA), the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB), and card signing prevention. And, most importantly, it covers how supervisors can avoid an unfair labor practice charge. Sessions include instruction, role-play, and films - high participation and no lectures!

Dates: 2/7/17 or 4/11/17 or 7/25/17 or 10/5/17 • Price: $235.00 ~ EASC Member Price: $195.00

DYNAMIC DECISION MAKING

Target Audience: Management at all levels and any other professionals who needs to improve decision-making skills and awareness.

Using a case study approach, this course offers a straightforward, easy-to-follow process designed to improve the way you make business decisions or any decision that can help reach your goals. Our decisions shape our professional and personal life. Sadly, decision-making is seldom taught as a skill in its own right. This course will present a clear process and user-friendly techniques for making smart decisions.

Dates: 3/21/17 or 11/7/17 • Price: $245.00 (includes cost of workbook) ~ EASC Member Price: $205.00 (includes cost of workbook)

EMPLOYMENT LAW FOR MANAGERS AND SUPERVISORS

Target Audience: HR professionals and other supervisors and managers who are responsible for applying state and federal employment law and/or who participate in discussions and decisions affected by employment law.

During the past decade, the number of employment discrimination cases filed in the federal courts has nearly tripled, with the suits being filed more frequently and with higher stakes. As an HR professional, manager, or supervisor with responsibility for applying employment law, you have a chance to take proactive steps to minimize exposure to such litigation. This session reviews pertinent employment law, discusses the application of law provisions, and highlights recent development in law interpretation. Included is a presentation on sexual harassment. Become more competent in recognizing potential danger situations and serve as a more valuable resource to company management in protecting your organization’s assets.

Dates: 4/26/17 or 9/6/17 • Price: $235.00 ~ EASC Member Price: $195.00

FINANCES FOR THE NON-FINANCIAL MANAGER

Target Audience: Any manager or supervisor who needs a better understanding of finance and accounting as it relates to business.

No matter what type of business you're in, you need to understand profit and loss and how it is determined. Now there is a non-threatening way to achieve that understanding. This EASC course will effectively communicate the information you need clearly and without stress. This course is designed to give the participant a working knowledge and understanding of the basic principles of finance. It's structure is such that it will assist a non-financial person to participate in the budget process, read income statements, be familiar with financial terms, and read financial statements, financial overviews and forecasts with understanding. This class includes discussions on cash flow, assets, liabilities and equity.

Date: 3/15/17 or 8/16/17 • Price: $235.00 ~ EASC Member Price: $195.00

FLSA/WAGE-HOUR ISSUES

Target Audience: HR and Financial Professionals including Payroll Clerks.

This "self-audit" program will help reduce or eliminate the likelihood of having to pay substantial back wages to employees and heavy fines to the government. Included will be discussion on: White Collar exemptions; Child Labor Laws; Age Discrimination; Proper Record Keeping; Minimum Wage Provisions; Overtime Requirements; FLSA Special Provisions; Avoiding Violations; Exempt/Non-Exempt; Equal Pay Act; and Compensable Working Time.

Date: 4/4/17 or 8/22/17 • Price: $235.00 ~ EASC Member Price: $195.00

FMLA/ADA/COBRA/HIPAA

Target Audience: HR professionals and others involved in understanding and applying FMLA, ADA, COBRA, & HIPAA. The Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA), the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), COBRA, and HIPAA have been a fact of the HR life for a number of years; yet, there are still issues that are subject to interpretation. This class will provide the basics of FMLA, ADA, COBRA, and HIPAA. It will also discuss the new HIPAA privacy rules. Attendees will review some of the more important court decisions, and will have an opportunity to discuss day-to-day problems with the instructor and fellow participants.

Dates: 2/8/17 • Price: $235.00 ~ EASC Member Price: $195.00

HARASSMENT – INCLUDING SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Target Audience: This program is designed for two audiences: the longer program is designed for Managers and Supervisors; the shorter program for all others

We all recognize the risk to our companies if our employees, especially managers and supervisors, violate our policy on anti-harassment in the workplace. Not only is training all employees the right thing to do, but there are legal reasons to insure that all employees know that harassment of any kind is simply not tolerated. Having respect for every fellow employee is something expected in the workplace. Further, management must fully understand the policy and the legal issues surrounding harassment: how to maintain a harassment free workplace and what to do about reports of harassment. This program will provide management with this knowledge and the basic employee program will insure that all employees understand the concept of harassment and the organization's policy. This program lends itself to on-site training.

Dates: 1/17/17 and 6/15/17 • Price: $235.00 ~ EASC Member Price: $195.00

HUMAN RESOURCES MANAGEMENT INSTITUTE

Target Audience: Entry level HR professionals, HR assistants who are ready for additional training, other managers who have HR responsibilities and/or need additional training.

This class is a comprehensive overview of all the functions of the Human Resources department in today's organization.

This "how-to" course offers guidance to participants in becoming a true value-adding member of the HR function.

Included: records and record keeping; communication, including confidentiality and trust; employment process; and organizational requirements for effective HR administration. The six-day course of study is a "how to" program designed to give the participant the information needed to administer and support an effective HR process. The course emphasizes the practical aspects of human resources management, compliance with applicable employment laws and regulations, administration of HR policies, and the administration of an effective employee relations climate. Each participant will leave with a comprehensive desktop reference manual.

Institute Curriculum:

Session 1 - Human Resources Management Overview: Philosophy, HR Policies and Practices, and Employment Handbook

Session 2 - Management Development: Principles of Leadership; National Labor Relations Act - a Practical Approach to the NLRA

Session 3 - SC and Federal Employment Laws: EEO, FMLA, ADA, OFCCP, FLSA, COBRA and SC State Statutes, etc.

Session 4 - Communications: Employee Meetings, Interviewing Skills, Counseling, Complaint Procedure, etc.

Session 5 - Performance Management: Job Descriptions, Job Evaluation, Job Pricing, Wage & Salary Administration, Performance Evaluations

Session 6 - Safety and Health: OSHA, Workers' Compensation, Safety Policy and Practice, Safety Committees, Recordkeeping

Date: 5/2, 3, 4, 9, 10, & 11/17 • Price: $1410.00 ~ EASC Member Price: $1170.00

HUMAN RESOURCES POLICIES & EMPLOYEE HANDBOOKS

Target Audience: HR professionals and other managers with responsibility for developing and applying company policies and practices.

Do you find yourself struggling to remember "how we did it the last time" when faced with a sticky employee discipline problem? Managing company HR policies and practices can be difficult and legally risky when trying to do it by memory. State and federal employment laws require accurate interpretation as well as equal and consistent application. Well-written employee handbooks serve as a guide to employees about the company's work rules; about the company's culture and management philosophy; and about the company's pay practices and fringe benefits. Most employees have a desire to follow company rules to the best of their ability - if they only knew what the rules are. All employees, especially new employees, have a need to know what the company's expectations of them are.

Dates: 3/2/17 or 9/27/17 • Price: $235.00 ~ EASC Member Price: $195.00

HUMAN RESOURCES AUDIT – HR DEPARTMENT AND HR CULTURE

Target Audience: HR Professionals and others with HR responsibilities

The HR Department should be prepared if a state or federal agency representative unexpectedly calls on your company for an audit or investigation. This self-audit program is designed as a learning tool in focusing attention on your employment practices and procedures by providing a structured and systematic checklist for practical and positive employment relations considerations. Class includes HR Department audit and company "HR Culture" audit.

Dates: 6/7/17 or 10/19/17 • Price: $235.00 ~ EASC Member Price: $195.00

IMMIGRATION REFORM AND CONTROL ACT (I-9) & SC ILLEGAL IMMIGRANT REFORM ACT

Target Audience: HR Professionals and others involved in the hiring process.

The issue of illegal immigrants in the United States and the problems this presents to employers is discussed in detail. Class discussion will include the I-9 process and the new S.C. statute which puts new pressures on SC employers. The federal E-Verify system is controversial but is a part of the SC statute as an alternative to a valid driver's license from approved states. In addition, Executive Order #12989 requires Federal Contractors to use E-Verify.

Date: 1/19/17 • Price: $235.00 ~ EASC Members Price: $195.00

INTRODUCTION TO SUPERVISION

Leadership Skills for Supervisors and Managers

Target Audience: Supervisors, Lead Workers, and Managers. One of a series of seven classes designed for the entry level HR professional and frontline supervisors.

This 2 day workshop recognizes the importance of having well trained supervisors and lead workers to direct and facilitate actions necessary to bring about a high level of efficiency and effectiveness in the workplace. Basic supervisory skills are the focus of this program which includes units on identifying different work styles to reinforce the importance of diversity; mutual goal setting; employee motivation; situational leadership styles; effective delegation; coaching to improve performance; discipline without punishment; mediating conflicts; time management; and team building. Training methodology includes role play, group discussions, sharing ideas and experiences with other participants, and other experiential activities to reinforce learning.

Dates: 2/1-2/17 or 4/5-6/17 or 7/11-12/17 or 9/20-21/17 • Price: $ 470.00 ~ EASC Member Price: $390.00

JOB DESCRIPTIONS

Target Audience: HR professionals and other managers involved in a company's pay and performance management process. One in a series of four classes in the Performance Management Process. Before a wage and salary program can be implemented, accurate job descriptions are essential. This workshop covers the process of job analysis and development of job descriptions, including ADA considerations and company strategic relevance.

Dates: 2/21/17 or 8/2/17 • Price: $235.00 ~ EASC Member Price: $195.00

JOB EVALUATION AND PRICING

Target Audience: HR professionals and other managers involved in a company's pay and performance management process. One in a series of four classes in the Performance Management Process.

Once job descriptions are in place, a company can proceed with the next step, which is the determination of relative worth of its job functions. This process includes the development of an internal strategy for internal and external market review, understanding the various methods of job evaluation, and a step-by-step "how-to" for arriving at appropriate classifications, salary grades and ranges, and optimum placement of employees within their respective classification.

Dates: 3/22/17 or 10/12/17 • Price: $235.00 ~ EASC Member Price: $195.00

KNOW YOURSELF AND OTHERS

Target audience: All employees, especially managers and supervisors who want to know how and why they react to others as they do.

Where do you prefer to direct your focus in relating to others? What energizes you? How do you prefer to take in information? How do you prefer to make decisions and come to conclusions? What is your attitude toward the external world and how do you prefer to interact with the environment and live your life? Your type preference forms a filter through which you look at people, situations, ideas, etc. Gain a better understanding of your filters and discover ways you can more effectively relate to, and be more appreciative of, others and their filters. Personality Assessments are a way to help people in organizations with issues and situations in career development, leadership development, communications, decision-making and team building. Provided as on-site consulting. This is an excellent tool for career development or salvaging a career that is off-track.

Date and Price: To be arranged with the requesting company.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT SEMINAR (LEAD)

Unlock that "super" manager that resides inside of you. Learn how to become the best manager and leader you can be. Not a standard "sit in the classroom and hear the speaker talk" type of course - this course is unlike anything you have ever experienced. You will get the opportunity, in a team setting environment, to unleash those ideas about what it takes to win and to test yourself in a real world setting. You will learn things about yourself and about how others see you that you never knew. You will return to your job with a renewed sense of purpose and an entirely new set of management and leadership skills. There is also a union-avoidance undercurrent to the training, but understand yourself as a manager is the primary focus. Experienced leaders with real-world experience at the highest levels of plant and corporate management lead the seminar.

Location: This class is designed for on-site use.

Dates and Price: To be arranged with requesting company.

MAXIMIZING ORGANIZATIONAL EFFECTIVENESS

What makes an organization function at a highly effective level? What distinguishes the highly effective organizations and gives them the competitive advantage necessary to win? This program takes a look at the "people" systems that can be installed in an organization that will lead to the performance necessary in today's competitive world. From an analysis of the degree of integration of the mission throughout the organization, to its culture of conflict resolution, to its communicative systems and its feedback mechanisms to the systems of rewards, this program takes a look at the entire organization and the individual's role in it.

Dates and Price: To be arranged with requesting company.

MEETING FACILITATION

We have all attended meetings that seemed to wonder and fail to accomplish anything meaningful. This service provides assistance in planning for a more successful outcome. Whether the goal is to create a vision and/or mission for the organization, develop a strategic plan, improve teamwork in order to eliminate silos or any other far reaching organizational initiative, EASC will provide the planning expertise and the facilitation to achieve your goals.

Dates and Price: To be arranged with requesting company.

NEGOTIATING SKILLS – THE BASICS

Target audience: Managers, HR Professionals and Supervisors.

Negotiation is a dilemma/conflict. Almost any conversation you find yourself in, is in some way, a negotiation. Everyone has experienced 'bargaining' when purchasing automobiles, houses, appliances, and even where to go for dinner. This class offers insights into dealing with people while negotiating, leveraging positions with peers, supervisors, direct reports, and employees. From complex issues to the simple, learn tactics, fairness, risk avoidances and many useful means to accomplish agreement when both sides are attempting to get what 'they' want.

Date: 1/31/17 or 7/19/17 • Price: $235.00 ~ EASC Members Price: $195.00

NEW EMPLOYEE ORIENTATION

Target Audience: HR professionals, recruiters, trainers, and managers/supervisors involved in the welcoming/education process of new employees.

New employees want to know that their decision to accept your job offer was the right decision. How we receive them into the company either validates their decision or leaves them wondering if they made a bad decision. We stress the positives of our company during the pre-employment process, but it is not uncommon for companies to overlook the value of an effective new employee orientation process, which can positively affect employee morale, absenteeism, turnover, and productivity. This class will provide the participants with a template to implement their own orientation process.

Dates: 1/25/17 or 7/21/17 • Price: $235.00 ~ EASC Member Price: $195.00

POWERED INDUSTRIAL TRUCK CERTIFICATION

Target Audience: Powered industrial truck operators, supervisors of these positions, and safety personnel.

This course is designed to certify powered industrial truck operators in accordance with OSHA regulations. OSHA requires that all industrial truck operators be certified prior to operating industrial trucks. This course consists of classroom instruction on industrial truck operation and safety requirements, hands on verification of operating skills and testing for comprehension. OSHA requires that certification training be done on site using current equipment. The certification is effective for three years at which time an operator must be re-certified. The course session takes about 4 hours and class size is limited to 15 persons. If desired two classes may be scheduled in one day.

Dates and Price: To be arranged with requesting company.

POWERED INDUSTRIAL TRUCK TRAIN-THE-TRAINER

Target Audience: Persons chosen to certify powered industrial truck operators for the organization.

This course is designed to qualify instructors to present the powered industrial truck certification course in accordance with OSHA regulations. This course consists of classroom instruction on understanding industrial truck operation and safety requirements, instruction techniques, hands on verification of operating skills and testing for comprehension. The course must be presented on site with current equipment being used. The course takes approximately 4 hours. Class size is limited to 4 people. Upon successful completion persons will be qualified to certify and re-certify industrial truck operators in accordance with OSHA regulations. This course provides an instructors guide, instruction materials and testing materials.

Dates and Price: To be arranged with the requesting company.

SAFETY ASSESSMENTS

Target Audience: Facility managers who want to insure their facility's compliance with safety and OSHA requirements before they have serious safety problems.

"Hello, I'm from OSHA and I'm here to make an inspection." Now what? We will conduct a detailed assessment of your facility and safety process. We will help you develop your own inspection and corrective action program with a safety assessment of your site.

Dates and Price: To be arranged with the requesting company.

SHRM CERTIFICATION

Target Audience: HR Professionals who wish to take the PHR or SPHR examination.

EASC has partnered with HRCP to supply the training material. Study guides are supplied to the attendee as part of the course fee. The HRCP study guides have been used by other organizations, including SHRM chapters and other employee associations with great success. This course is also suitable to those who wish to recertify and prefer to take the exam again rather than accumulate the 60 hours of CEU's. We are available to conduct this course at other locations as well. Call us for information and scheduling.

Dates: First Schedule: March 2, 9, 16, 23, 30; April 6, 13 (review) • Second Schedule: October 5, 12, 19, 26; November 2, 9, 16 (review)

TEAM BUILDING – ROPES COURSE

Target Audience: Any level of employee where team work skills are essential to effective working relationships. Particularly useful in upper-level management groups. For leadership, management, and intact work teams, a one or two day event on the ropes course at Ripley’s Retreat can be designed and customized to meet the specific needs of the company making the request. Hasty planning, poor communication, lack of cooperation and mutual support, inability to solve problems and make decisions together are examples of issues that are easily addressed in this type of learning environment. The results will become evident immediately.

Location: This class is held at Ripley’s Retreat, an outdoor training facility in Richland County

Date and Price: To be arranged with the requesting company.

TEAM BUILDING WORKSHOP

Target Audience: Managers and supervisors from all function areas.

In this age of “lean” organizations, management is recognizing the need to help employees work as a team. Whether the management structure formalizes the use of teams or not, the wise manager will focus on moving the company toward a team approach which reinforces collaboration and teamwork versus internal competition.

Content of this one-day program includes:

- The use of teams in an organization
- Characteristics of high performing teams
- Techniques for building a consensus
- Establishment of well-defined goals and priorities
- Establishing clear roles and duties
- The role of communications and individual styles of communication
- Team versus individual goals
- Effective conflict resolution
- Gaining commitment
- The key skills in effective teamwork
- Building trust and morale within the team
